

Ohio Revised Code

Section 2721.05 Determination of rights or legal relations.

Effective: August 7, 2007

Legislation: House Bill 53 - 127th General Assembly

As used in this section, "incompetent person" means a person who is so mentally impaired as a result of a mental or physical illness or disability, or mental retardation, or as a result of chronic substance abuse, that the person is incapable of taking proper care of the person's self or property or fails to provide for the person's family or other persons for whom the person is charged by law to provide.

Any person interested as or through an executor, administrator, trustee, guardian, or other fiduciary, creditor, devisee, legatee, heir, next of kin, or cestui que trust, in the administration of a trust, or of the estate of a decedent, an infant, an incompetent person, or an insolvent person, may have a declaration of rights or legal relations in respect thereto in any of the following cases:

- (A) To ascertain any class of creditors, devisees, legatees, heirs, next of kin, or others;
 - (B) To direct the executors, administrators, trustees, or other fiduciaries to do or abstain from doing any particular act in their fiduciary capacity;
 - (C) To determine any question arising in the administration of the estate or trust, including questions of construction of wills and other writings.
