

Ohio Revised Code

Section 2733.04 Commencing quo warranto.

Effective: June 15, 1978

Legislation: House Bill 397 - 112th General Assembly

When directed by the governor, supreme court, secretary of state, or general assembly, the attorney general, or a prosecuting attorney, shall commence an action in quo warranto. When, upon complaint or otherwise, either of such officers has good reason to believe that any case specified in section 2733.02 of the Revised Code can be established by proof, he shall commence such action.
