

Ohio Revised Code

Section 2737.14 Final judgment to award permanent possession.

Effective: August 26, 1982

Legislation: House Bill 254 - 114th General Assembly

In an action to recover possession of personal property in which an order of possession has been issued, the final judgment shall award permanent possession of the property and any damages to the party obtaining the award to the extent the damages proximately resulted from the taking, withholding, or detention of the property by the other, and the costs of the action. If delivery of the property cannot be made, the action may proceed as a claim for conversion upon due notice being given the respondent of the date, time, place, and purpose of the hearing upon such claim.
