

Ohio Revised Code

Section 2941.17 Description of writing by usual name or purport.

Effective: January 1, 1974

Legislation: House Bill 511 - 109th General Assembly

In all cases when it is necessary to make an averment in an indictment or information as to a writing, instrument, tool, or thing, it is sufficient to describe it by any name or designation by which it is usually known, or by the purport thereof.
