

Ohio Revised Code

Section 2945.831 Motion for new trial not necessary for appellate review.

Effective: January 1, 1960

Legislation: Senate Bill 133 - 103rd General Assembly

A motion for a new trial is not a necessary prerequisite to obtain appellate review of the sufficiency or weight of the evidence in the trial of a criminal case.
