

Ohio Revised Code

Section 2967.21 Transfer of prisoner does not affect term.

Effective: July 1, 1996

Legislation: Senate Bill 2 - 121st General Assembly

Any prisoner sentenced or committed to a state correctional institution may be transferred from that institution to another state correctional institution, but the prisoner shall continue to be subject to the same conditions as to the stated prison term, parole, and release as if the prisoner were confined in the institution to which the prisoner originally was sentenced or committed.
