

Ohio Revised Code

Section 3115.612 Recognition of order modified in another state.

Effective: January 1, 2016

Legislation: House Bill 64 - 131st General Assembly

If a child-support order issued by a tribunal of this state is modified by a tribunal of another state which assumed jurisdiction pursuant to its uniform interstate family support act, a tribunal of this state:

(A) May enforce its order that was modified only as to arrears and interest accruing before the modification;

(B) May provide appropriate relief for violations of its order that occurred before the effective date of the modification;

(C) Shall recognize the modifying order of the other state, upon registration, for the purpose of enforcement.
