

Ohio Revised Code

Section 3119.43 Notice of failure of person to comply with child support order.

Effective: February 11, 2019

Legislation: Senate Bill 70 - 132nd General Assembly

If the person required to obtain health insurance coverage pursuant to a child support order issued in accordance with section 3119.30 of the Revised Code does not obtain the required coverage within thirty days after the order is issued, the child support enforcement agency may notify the court that issued the court child support order or, with respect to an administrative child support order, the court of common pleas of the county in which the agency is located, in writing of the failure of the person to comply with the child support order. The court may punish the person for contempt under Chapter 2705. of the Revised Code for the failure.
