

Ohio Revised Code

Section 3119.73 Calculating revised amount of child support.

Effective: March 22, 2001

Legislation: Senate Bill 180 - 123rd General Assembly

---

(A) In calculating a revised amount of child support to be paid under section 3119.61 or 3119.63 of the Revised Code, and in redetermining, at an administrative hearing conducted under either of those sections, a revised amount of child support to be paid, the child support enforcement agency shall consider, in addition to all other factors required by law to be considered, the following:

(1) The appropriate person, whether it is the obligor, obligee, or both, to be required to provide health insurance coverage for the children specified in the order;

(2) The cost of health insurance coverage that the obligor, the obligee, or both have been ordered to obtain for the children specified in the order.

(B) In determining, at a hearing conducted under section 3119.66 of the Revised Code, the appropriate amount of child support to be paid by the obligor, the court shall consider the following, in addition to all other factors required by law to be considered:

(1) The appropriate person, whether it is the obligor, obligee, or both, to be required to provide health insurance coverage for the children specified in the order;

(2) The cost of health insurance that the obligor, the obligee, or both have been ordered to obtain for the children specified in the order.
