

Ohio Revised Code

Section 3301.0728 Retaking of end-of-course examinations.

Effective: March 16, 2015

Legislation: House Bill 7 - 131st General Assembly

Notwithstanding anything in the Revised Code to the contrary, a student may retake any end-of-course examination prescribed under division (B)(2) of section 3301.0712 of the Revised Code during the student's academic career at a time designated by the department of education. If, for any reason, a student does not take an end-of-course examination on the scheduled administration date, the department of education shall make available to the student the examination for which the student was absent, or a substantially similar examination as determined by the department, so that the student may take the examination or a substantially similar examination at a later time in the student's academic career. The state board of education shall adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to implement the provisions of this section.
