

Ohio Revised Code Section 3313.07 Adoption by majority vote.

Effective: October 1, 1953

Legislation: House Bill 1 - 100th General Assembly

---

If any plan submitted according to section 3313.05 of the Revised Code receives a majority of the number of votes cast for all of the plans, it shall thereafter become the law governing the number of members and the organization of the board of education in such district and at the next regular municipal election following the adoption of such plan all the members of the board of such district shall be elected pursuant to such plan.

The terms of all members of the board of such district who were elected prior to the adoption of such plan, or who are elected at the regular municipal election at which such plan is adopted, shall expire on the day preceding the first Monday of January following the next regular municipal election thereafter. All members elected at said regular municipal election following the adoption of such plan shall take office on the first Monday of January next following their election and shall hold office during such term as is provided by such plan adopted by the electors of said district, but no term shall be for less than two years.
