

Ohio Revised Code

Section 3746.19 Notice of noncompliance by certified professional or laboratory.

Effective: September 30, 2021

Legislation: House Bill 110

(A) If the director of environmental protection finds that the performance of a certified professional or certified laboratory has resulted in the issuance of no further action letters under section 3746.11 of the Revised Code that are not consistent with applicable standards, the director shall notify persons for whom the certified professional or certified laboratory has performed work in connection with a voluntary action of those findings.

(B) The director, in accordance with the criteria and procedures established in rules adopted under division (B)(8) of section 3746.04 of the Revised Code, may conduct an audit of any property for which a covenant not to sue was issued under section 3746.12 of the Revised Code based upon a no further action letter issued under section 3746.11 of the Revised Code that was prepared by a certified professional whose certification was subsequently suspended or revoked under this chapter and rules adopted under it or based upon a no further action letter for a voluntary action for which analyses were performed by a certified laboratory for which the certification was suspended or revoked before the effective date of this amendment .

If, after such an audit, the director finds that the property does not comply with applicable standards, the director shall proceed in accordance with divisions (B)(2) through (4) of section 3746.12 of the Revised Code.
