

Ohio Revised Code

Section 3781.16 Effect on municipal or other state authorities.

Effective: October 29, 1995

Legislation: Senate Bill 162 - 121st General Assembly

Sections 3781.06 to 3781.18 and section 3791.04 of the Revised Code do not limit any of the powers of the public utilities commission, the bureau of workers' compensation, or the department of commerce, or the division of fire marshal, except as specifically provided in those sections, nor exempt any officer or department from the obligation of enforcing all laws. Those sections do not limit any of the powers conferred upon municipal corporations by the constitution or the laws of this state.
