

Ohio Revised Code

Section 3909.08 Renewal certificates of authority.

Effective: January 13, 1978

Legislation: House Bill 534 - 112th General Assembly

If the annual statement required by section 3909.06 of the Revised Code is satisfactory evidence to the superintendent of insurance of the solvency and ability of the company to meet all its engagements at maturity, and that the deposit is maintained as required by section 3909.03 of the Revised Code, he shall issue renewal certificates of authority to the agents of the company, certified copies of which must be filed in the county recorder's office of the county in which the agency is located. Such renewal certificates shall be retained by the recorder for a minimum of two years from the date of filing and shall be the authority of such agents to issue new policies in this state for the ensuing year.
