

Ohio Revised Code

Section 3937.37 Prohibiting requirement of disclosure.

Effective: January 1, 1970

Legislation: Senate Bill 334 - 108th General Assembly

No insurer on its application for an automobile insurance policy shall require the applicant to disclose any refusal or cancellation of automobile insurance other than a cancellation in accord with section 3937.31 of the Revised Code, and according to the procedure required in sections 3937.32 and 3937.33 of the Revised Code.
