

Ohio Revised Code

Section 3941.12 Investment of assets.

Effective: September 30, 1955

Legislation: Senate Bill 386 - 101st General Assembly

No domestic mutual company shall invest any of its assets otherwise than as provided for the investment of assets of domestic insurance companies other than life. In computing the assets, liabilities, and surplus of such company, no contingent liability or unauthorized investments shall be considered.
