

Ohio Revised Code

Section 3951.08 No advice constituting practice of law.

Effective: November 6, 1959

Legislation: House Bill 1009 - 103rd General Assembly

No holder of a certificate of authority shall make any misrepresentations of facts or advise any insured or insurer on any question of law or perform any service constituting the practice of law, nor shall any such holder of a certificate of authority in handling a claim, advise any insured or insurer to refrain from retaining counsel to protect his or its interests.
