

Ohio Revised Code Section 4707.07 Auctioneer license.

Effective: September 13, 2022

Legislation: House Bill 321

---

(A) The department of agriculture may grant an auctioneer's license to an individual who is determined to be qualified by the department. Each individual who applies for an auctioneer's license shall furnish to the department, on forms provided by the department, satisfactory proof that the applicant:

- (1) Has attained the age of at least eighteen years;
- (2) Has successfully completed a course of study in auctioneering at an institution that is approved by the state auctioneers commission.
- (3) Has a general knowledge of the following:
  - (a) The requirements of the Revised Code relative to auctioneers;
  - (b) The auction profession;
  - (c) The principles involved in conducting an auction;
  - (d) Any local and federal laws regarding the profession of auctioneering.
- (4) Has satisfied the financial responsibility requirements established under section 4707.11 of the Revised Code if applicable.

(B) If the department determines that an application is incomplete, the department shall notify the applicant that the application is incomplete and inform the applicant of the information that is missing from the application. An applicant shall submit the additional information within ninety days after being notified by the department that the application is incomplete. If an applicant fails to submit the required information within that ninety-day period, the department shall deny the application and the applicant shall forfeit the application fee to the department.

(C) A licensee may do business under more than one registered name, but not to exceed three registered names, provided that the names have been approved by the department. The department may reject the application of any person seeking licensure under this chapter if the name or names to be used by the applicant are likely to mislead the public, or if the name or names do not distinguish the applicant from the name or names of any existing person licensed under this chapter. If an applicant applies to the department to do business under three names, the department may charge a fee of ten dollars for the third name.
