

Ohio Revised Code

Section 4715.63 Expiration and renewal of expanded function dental auxiliary registration.

Effective: September 29, 2017

Legislation: House Bill 49 - 132nd General Assembly

(A) Registration under section 4715.62 of the Revised Code expires on the thirty-first day of December of the year following the year in which the registration occurs. An individual may renew a registration for subsequent two-year periods by submitting both of the following to the secretary of the state dental board each time the individual seeks to renew a registration:

- (1) A completed application for renewal, under oath, on a form the board shall prescribe and provide;
- (2) A renewal fee of twenty-five dollars.

(B) If an individual complies with division (A) of this section and is not in violation of any section of this chapter or rule adopted under it, the board shall renew the individual's registration for a two-year period that expires on the thirty-first day of December of the year following the year in which the registration was renewed.

(C) Registration renewals shall be made in accordance with the standard renewal procedure established under Chapter 4745. of the Revised Code.
