

Ohio Revised Code

Section 4905.321

Effective: August 14, 2025

Legislation: House Bill 15

(A) Notwithstanding section 4905.32 of the Revised Code, all revenues collected from customers by a public utility as part of a rider or rates that are later found to be unreasonable, unlawful, or otherwise improper by the supreme court shall be subject to refund from the date of the issuance of the supreme court's decision until the date when, on remand, the public utilities commission makes changes to the rider or rates to implement the supreme court's decision.

(B) The commission shall order the payment of the refunds described in division (A) of this section in a manner designed to allocate the refunds to customer classes in the same proportion as the charges were originally collected.

(C) The commission shall determine how to allocate any remaining funds described in division (A) of this section that cannot be refunded for whatever reason.

(D) The commission shall order the payment of the funds described in division (A) of this section and shall determine how to allocate any remaining funds that cannot be refunded not more than thirty days after the date of the issuance of the supreme court's decision.
