

Ohio Revised Code

Section 5103.611 Family preservation center certification application.

Effective: January 1, 2025

Legislation: House Bill 33

A person who holds an active license to operate a children's crisis care facility under section 5103.13 of the Revised Code or a residential infant care center under section 5103.602 of the Revised Code may apply to the director of children and youth to obtain a certificate as a family preservation center under this section.
