

Ohio Revised Code

Section 5108.03 Model design for assistance or services to promote self sufficiency and personal responsibility.

Effective: September 26, 2003

Legislation: House Bill 95 - 125th General Assembly

Under the prevention, retention, and contingency program, each county department of job and family services shall do both of the following in accordance with the statement of policies the county department develops under section 5108.04 of the Revised Code:

- (A) Provide benefits and services that individuals need to overcome immediate barriers to achieving or maintaining self sufficiency and personal responsibility;
 - (B) Perform related administrative duties.
-