

Ohio Revised Code

Section 5162.40 Retaining or collecting percentage of federal financial participation.

Effective: September 29, 2013

Legislation: House Bill 59 - 130th General Assembly

(A)(1) Except as provided in division (B) of this section, if a state agency or political subdivision administers one or more components of the medicaid program that the United States department of health and human services approved, and for which federal financial participation was initially obtained, prior to January 1, 2002, or administers one or more aspects of such a component, the department of medicaid may retain or collect not more than ten per cent of the federal financial participation the state agency or political subdivision obtains through an approved, administrative claim regarding the component or aspect of the component. If the department retains or collects a percentage of such federal financial participation, the percentage the department retains or collects shall be specified in a contract the department enters into with the state agency or political subdivision under section 5162.35 of the Revised Code.

(2) Except as provided in division (B) of this section, if a state agency or political subdivision administers one or more components of the medicaid program that the United States department of health and human services approved on or after January 1, 2002, or administers one or more aspects of such a component, the department of medicaid shall retain or collect not less than three and not more than ten per cent of the federal financial participation the state agency or political subdivision obtains through an approved, administrative claim regarding the component or aspect of the component. The percentage the department retains or collects shall be specified in a contract the department enters into with the state agency or political subdivision under section 5162.35 of the Revised Code.

(B) All amounts the department retains or collects under this section shall be deposited into the health care services administration fund created under section 5162.54 of the Revised Code.
