

Ohio Revised Code

Section 5307.21 Actions by one coparcener against another.

Effective: October 1, 1953

Legislation: House Bill 1 - 100th General Assembly

One tenant in common, or coparcener, may recover from another tenant in common, or coparcener his share of rents and profits received by such tenant in common or coparcener from the estate, according to the justice and equity of the case. One coparcener may maintain an action of waste against another coparcener. No coparcener shall have any privileges over another coparcener, in any election, division, partition, or matter to be made or done, concerning lands which have descended.
