

Ohio Revised Code

Section 5810.03 Trustee not accountable or liable for profit or loss absent breach.

Effective: January 1, 2007

Legislation: House Bill 416 - 126th General Assembly

(A) Absent a breach of trust, a trustee is not accountable to a beneficiary for any profit made by the trustee arising from the administration of the trust.

(B) Absent a breach of trust, a trustee is not liable to a beneficiary for a loss or depreciation in the value of trust property or for not having made a profit.
