

Ohio Revised Code

Section 6101.83 Unlawful use of moneys.

Effective: October 1, 1953

Legislation: House Bill 1 - 100th General Assembly

No officer of a conservancy district or any other public officer shall make a profit, directly or indirectly, out of any contracts entered into by the district, or, for the purpose of profit, use any money belonging to a district by loaning it or otherwise using it, or by depositing it in any manner, contrary to law, or by removal of any money by any such officer or by his consent and placing it elsewhere than is prescribed either by law or by the official acts of the board of directors of the conservancy district. The officer offending shall be liable personally and upon his official bond for all losses to such district and for all profits realized by such unlawful use of moneys.
