

Ohio Revised Code

Section 901.171 Promotion of use of Ohio-produced agricultural goods.

Effective: September 29, 2007

Legislation: House Bill 119 - 127th General Assembly

The department of agriculture may promote the use of Ohio-produced agricultural goods, including natural spring water, through the issuance of logotypes to qualified producers and processors under a promotional certification program to be developed and administered by the division of markets.

Pursuant to rules adopted under Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, the department may establish reasonable fees and criteria for participation in the program. All such fees shall be credited to the general revenue fund and used to finance the program.
