

Ohio Revised Code Section 917.08 Examinations.

Effective: October 21, 1997

Legislation: Senate Bill 87 - 122nd General Assembly

The director of agriculture shall conduct examinations to test qualifications of applicants for a weigher, sampler, or tester license issued under section 917.09 of the Revised Code at such times and in such places as in the director's opinion will afford the applicants an opportunity to take the examination at reasonable expense. The director may designate or employ one or more persons to conduct the examinations.
