

Ohio Revised Code

Section 925.55 False representation of contents of fresh fruit and vegetable containers.

Effective: October 8, 1965

Legislation: House Bill 712 - 106th General Assembly

No person shall sell, offer for sale, expose, or have in his possession for sale fresh fruits or vegetables prepackaged in the same retail store, market, or business establishment where said commodities are being exposed or offered for sale in containers in which the face or exposed surface gives a false representation of the contents of such package. It shall be considered a false representation if said face is not reasonably representative in size, color, quality, and varietal characteristics of the remaining portion of such package.
